

PPE when undertaking Aerosol Generating Procedures (AGPs) within health & social care settings.

PPE listed in donning sequence - to be worn by staff during AGP and where applicable, until the post AGP fallow time has elapsed.

For use with service users with no evidence of an infectious agent transmitted wholly or partly by the droplet or airborne route.

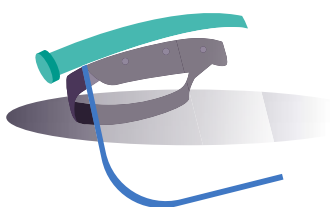

Apron

Fluid repellent long sleeved gown/coverall if extensive splash/spray with blood/ body fluid is anticipated

Fluid Resistant Surgical Mask (Type IIR)

FFP3 is not required, however may be worn if concerned about potential exposure during an AGP following a personal PPE risk assessment

Full face visor/eye protection

Full face shield/visor must be worn if FFP3 mask has an unshrouded valve

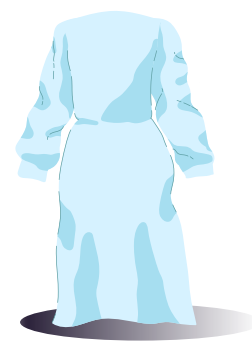

Gloves

No Post AGP Fallow time required

For use with service users with evidence of an infectious agent transmitted wholly or partly by the droplet or airborne route.

Fluid repellent long sleeved gown/coverall

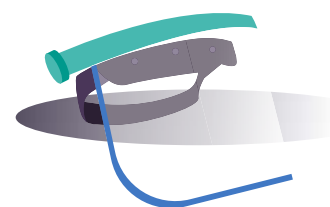

FFP3 Face Mask or Powered Respirator Hood

Valved or unvalved respirators may be used

Full face visor/eye protection

Full face shield/visor must be worn if FFP3 mask has an unshrouded valve

Gloves

Post AGP Fallow time required